Advocates for Access Offering Independent Living Skills Training Classes

Advocates for Access, formerly Central Illinois Center for Independent Living, is offering free independent living skills training classes to people with disabilities throughout Central Illinois. An orientation will be held on Tuesday, January 8, 2008 to determine community interest and course subject matter. All courses will be created based on consumer need and skill level. Ongoing class schedules will be determined on the day of orientation. Free classes will continue on topics chosen by participants.

Orientation will be from 2:00 pm – 4:00 pm on Tuesday, January 8, 2008 at Advocates for Access, 4450 N. Prospect Rd. Suite C8, Peoria Heights, IL 61616. All classes are free and open to all people with disabilities. Transportation via CityLift or CityLink may be provided if necessary.

Class size is limited and registration is on a first come, first serve basis.
