Advocates for Access Offering Training Opportunity

Advocates for Access, formerly Central Illinois Center for Independent Living, is offering an opportunity for people with disabilities, family members, and personal assistants to learn how to recognize medical emergencies. This training is designed to enable the attendee to become more aware of various emergency situations such as heart attack, stroke, seizures, and diabetic emergencies.

This training session is from 6:30pm – 9:00pm on Wednesday, January 16, 2008 at Advocates for Access, 4450 N. Prospect Rd., Peoria Heights, IL 61616. There is no fee for this training.

Class size is limited and registration is on a first come, first serve basis.
